A high-angle photograph of a modern dining area. In the center is a round table with a white marble top and a dark metal base. Six chairs are arranged around the table, each with a different color and texture: a light tan tufted chair, a dark brown ribbed chair, a black ribbed chair, a teal tufted chair, a mustard yellow tufted chair, and a dark green tufted chair. The floor is made of large, dark grey square tiles. In the background, there is a wooden table with black chairs and a staircase with a dark carpet and wooden railings. The lighting is dramatic, casting long shadows on the floor.
